

The New Humanitarian |

Anti-corruption & Conflict of Interest

Extract from The New Humanitarian's Standard Operating Procedures

4.1.1.1. The performance, behaviour and actions of TNH, including board members, staff (both employees and consultants), volunteers, or agents who are engaged in any aspect of procurement, including – but not limited to – purchasing goods and services, awarding contracts or the administration and supervision of contracts (hereby “agent(s) of TNH”), shall be subject to the following:

4.1.1.2. No agent of TNH shall participate in the selection, award or administration of a bid or contract supported by TNH funds if a conflict of interest is real or apparent to a reasonable person. Conflicts of interest may arise when any agent of TNH has a financial, family or any other beneficial interest in the vendor firm selected or considered for an award.

4.1.1.3. No agent of TNH shall do business with, award contracts to, or show favouritism toward someone with whom s/he has a close personal relationship, including a member of his/her immediate family or business associate, or to any company or vendor who either employs or has any relationship to a family member, business associate or other close personal contact.

4.1.1.4. No agent of TNH shall solicit nor accept gratuities, gifts, consulting fees, trips, favours or anything having a monetary value from a vendor, potential vendor, or from the family, employees or other associates of a vendor, potential vendor or bidder; or from any party to a sub-agreement or ancillary contract.